And it's in our tasting rooms where you'll discover another of nature's gifts—handcrafted wines made from bountiful Southern Oregon grapes!

As I've mentioned before, hardly a day passes without a visitor or a local telling me how much they appreciate the laid-back feeling of our wine region and all that it offers. They're also increasingly impressed by the quality and selection of Southern Oregon wines that are now finding their way onto the national stage as never before. This sort of positive feedback reflects the passion and skill of our winemakers and winery owners who are raising the bar with every vintage. As you'll find here in Wine Scene, casting a bright spotlight on the people behind our local wine labels is what we're all about!

This issue offers-up another slate of interesting feature stories, our informative and fun-to-read winery listings and the best road maps around—all designed to help you navigate the wine scene at your own pace.

I'm really excited to bring you our dreamy feature, "Stay Among the Vines," where we sent Peggy Dover on a multiday field trip to check-in and check-out several new lodging options that literally let you sleep in and around the vines! Thanks to an increasing number of on-site and overnight vineyard accommodations, wine adventurers are in for a unique and authentic experience.

As you'll read in Chris Cook's piece, "Building Community with Barbera," DANCIN Vineyards' wines recently traveled to Alba, Italy with representatives from Medford's sister city program—an honor for the winery, a reflection of local pride and a way for one Southern Oregon vintner to honor the tradition of crafting world-class wines.

In "A Place Like No Other," wine journalist MJ Daspit takes us on a tour of Hummingbird Estate, recently purchased by the Walk family. Learn how they've renovated and revitalized this heritage site and created one of most casually elegant new wine tasting and lodging destinations in the region.

In an example of building regional pride, the Neuman Hotel Group's Wine Garden at their Lithia Springs Resort in Ashland is now offering a series of educational programs that are transforming how visitors learn about our burgeoning wine scene. As one of the wine industry's premier culinary and lodging partners, NHG has once again proven why it is the best of the best.

When it comes to community-focused organizations, no group is more important to our community than the Asante medical group. This is evidenced by the expansion of their facilities and services that will bring affordable care to the underserved residents of our region. In our feature by Desirae MacGillivray-Myers, learn how the Oregon Wine Experience is changing lives in Southern Oregon by raising awareness and funds to make this goal a reality.

Finally, in "Wine Country Chef," food guru Sarah Lemon takes us on a gastro-guided tour of Wooldridge Creek Winery's downtown Grants Pass wine/cheese/food venue, Vinfarm. Here, you'll meet Chad Hahn, a brilliant, young chef who's making magic happen one plate at a time.

This spring season, join me in saying "thanks" to everyone in the wine scene who's working for the betterment of our community and Cheers to Living Between the Vines.

SLEEPING AROUND

Stay Among the Vines in Southern Oregon Wine Country

The Rogue Valley offers a wide array of top-notch bed and breakfasts, guest cottages, and hotels. But if you've ever wondered what it would feel like to sleep in a vineyard, the following select Southern Oregon wineries invite you to experience unique and indulgent accommodations among the vines! Our journey of discovery will begin in the south and wind northward. With the promise of unparalleled views, free tastings, winery tours, live music, and peaceful surroundings, your perfect choice awaits. All locations are within easy reach of favorite activities—the Shakespeare Festival in Ashland, Britt Music Festival in Jacksonville, fine dining and cultural events in Medford, and a backpack full of call-of-the-wild outdoor activities. Whether your goal is to pack in as much of the flavor of the area as possible or to find the perfect, peaceful escape from it all, sleeping among the vines will only serve to sweeten the package. Pleasant dreams.

WEISINGER FAMILY WINERY—Originally an orchard, Weisinger Family Winery is among the earliest Southern Oregon wineries and is the first to be established in Ashland. The Cottage is a renewal of the original early 1900s farmhouse, providing a cozy getaway for two, nestled next to Pinot Noir vines. Enjoy the valley's mild climate from the recently remodeled outdoor space with pergola decking, barbeque, and hot tub. This 600 square-foot getaway sits among the Ashland hills. It's private yet convenient, and just a short walk from the tasting room, where you can sample award-winning wines, complements of the winery. Snuggle next to the gas fireplace on chilly days and nights, and dream away cares in a comfy queen-sized four-poster. Guests also receive a complimentary bottle of wine with a cheese and cracker basket, as well as discounts on all wine purchases made during their stay. This location is perfect when you want a quiet country experience only eight minutes from downtown Ashland. A visit to the Weisinger Vineyard Cottage is truly a memorable experience. More on page 23.

GRIZZLY PEAK WINERY—A stay at Grizzly Peak Winery in Ashland is all about the views. Their namesake mountain, Mount Ashland, and the town of Ashland, are shown to advantage at every turn. Overnighters reap additional benefits. "Whenever it's the season, they get the bounty of our fruit trees," owner Virginia Silbowitz explained. "Apples, pears, and figs. We enjoy sharing it with our guests." Bring your binoculars, because Grizzly Peak is also prime birdwatching territory. Their Sunset Cottage is an 800 square-foot light and airy studio available when there are no weddings or traveling musicians stopping for their summer concert series. It sleeps four and has a full kitchen. Guests are invited to a complimentary evening of music and a food truck meal during concert season. A bottle of red or white and a wine tasting are part of the package. Vineyard strolls are available through eleven varietals. After a tour, enjoy a picture-perfect picnic set within an inviting oak grove. And do meet the friendly resident cats—Rogue and Merlot. More on page 21.

PASCHAL WINERY & VINEYARD—Paschal Winery & Vineyard overlooks the Tuscan-esque hills of Talent, Oregon. Owner, Aga Paschal, shows two Dream Cottages available for lodging, "just 67 steps" from the warm and welcoming tasting room. Both units are unfussy yet lush, with big screen televisions for nights in, fireplaces, and trendy sliding "barn" doors to the bedrooms. King-sized beds from which to watch the sun set, await the end of a perfect day. Views are rich with acres of vines and Roxy Ann peak. Dream Cottage two includes a massage chair in the living room and swinging bed for a playful mood. On the patio, relax into a hammock with a glass of Civita, and soak your cares away under the stars in the hot tub. Guests receive a free tasting, bottle of wine and are welcome to work hands-on in the vineyard depending on the season. Aga is a people person and enjoys her role as innkeeper. "This has been incredible. We've made many friends." More on page 30.

ROXYANN WINERY—For a centrally-located vineyard stay and for those who crave local history, RoxyAnn Winery in Northeast Medford is a fabulous choice. All estate buildings are listed on the National Historic Register. Originally an apple orchard before the pear gold rush, RoxyAnn remains a 250 acre estate of mostly wine grapes with some pears and a few apples. RoxyAnn offers two smaller units—the Carriage House and, formerly, the Boys' House, one with single bedroom and kitchenette, the other with sitting room and bedroom, no kitchen. For larger parties and family reunions, consider soaking up the historic charm of their 1920s Big House. Chad Day, fourth generation owner explains, "This was my great-grandfather's summer home." The Big House boasts three master bedrooms, each with sleeping porch and smaller attached bedroom. A large kitchen with butler's pantry is available. And don't miss the rustic ambiance of their 1918 tasting room, where they showcase talented local musicians, indoors or out, year-round. More on page 28.

HUMMINGBIRD ESTATE—A visit to Hummingbird Estate is a stately trek back through valley history to a 1920s manor home on Old Stage Road near Jacksonville. A generous driveway through vines delivers on the stunning refurbished estate, housing spacious yet homey tasting rooms below with five luxury guest suites with private baths above. Rooms are, the Japanese Maple, Chardonnay, Syrah, Pinot Noir, and the largest, Sequoia, with built-in bookcase and writing desk. All suites contain king beds, but the Pinot Noir, with two twins. Accommodations range in size from four to seven hundred square feet and are expertly restored while retaining all the charm of original appointments. Antique, inlaid ceramic tiles and quaint, non-operational fireplaces show sincere appreciation for authenticity. A fireplace downstairs works well for flame gazing. Vintage windows look out onto inspiring country views, and sleeping quarters are tastefully furnished with luxury linens, plush custom bathrobes, and special details to make your time away simply enchanting. And the owners' daughter, Kristina Alvarez, will cook your breakfast. More on pages 12 and 41.

RELLIK WINERY—Further along Old Stage Road and a half mile from historic Jacksonville, smiling alpacas bid a friendly welcome to Rellik Winery. Rellik's red-eyed raven label signifies award-winning wines. Now, a refurbished Rellik House is ready for friends and family getaways. Rellik House has a common area plus three rooms—the Raven, Wine, and Alpaca. The Raven and Wine suites with one bedroom, Alpaca with three. All have living rooms, kitchenettes, laundry facilities and 55" TVs. They may be enjoyed individually or, why not take over the whole house? Perfect for larger groups, Rellik sleeps up to fourteen. Guests receive money toward a meal from their new farm-to-table kitchen. Plunge into a heated pool after a hard day of sightseeing, then huddle your clan around the fire pit as night falls, with good conversation and a warming glass of Cabernet. "We have it all," says owner Delando Pegan. "You can stay here, eat here, drink here, you can get married here!" More on page 43.

TROON VINEYARD—Need to escape the hustle and bustle? A respite at Troon Vineyard is a must. Situated in the breathtaking Applegate Valley, Troon is one of only two certified biodynamic and organic wineries. It's also the earliest, with grapes originally planted in 1972. Troon has two fully refurbished homes to share—the Cottage House, 1,400 square feet with two bedrooms, two baths, and the Vineyard House, 1,800 square feet with three bedrooms and two baths. New owner (with husband, Bryan), Denise White, showed off these two secluded homes situated literally among the vines. Each is professionally appointed with luxury fixtures and tasteful decorator touches. Everything you could want in a home away from home is included in the price—cookware, spices, laundry soap, even spaghetti and sauce when you arrive hungry. Away from city lights, a dark sky is the ticket for star-gazing and sound sleep. With no shortage of unobstructed views of the verdant Applegate hills, and nearly 100 acres to stroll, including a lake with swans, relaxation is a given. More on page 51.

DANCIN VINEYARDS & WINERY

Building Community with Barbera

by CHRIS COOK

Barbera is a unique red grape variety that is full of contradiction. With deeply-pigmented skins, it makes dark red wine that drinks more like a white. It is high in acidity, crisp and refreshing with none of the mouth-drying tannins you would expect. Even so, it typically has qualities you would enjoy in a big red—dark cherry, ripe plum, blackberry and a baker's choice of spices.

With these unique characteristics, Barbera is a great food wine, which many enjoy with tomato-based dishes, rich-dark meats, mushrooms, herbs, root vegetables and blue cheese—although the possibilities are innumerable.

We don't see much Barbera in the United States and hardly any in Southern Oregon. Here, DANCIN Vineyards is leading the way in Barbera production, with its first Southern Oregon vintage in 2014. According to DANCIN owner Dan Marca, his "Tribute" Barbera is in celebration of his southern Italian heritage. A first-generation American, Dan also makes an "Onore" Barbera (to honor).

"Barbera evokes in me the feeling of friendship, generations of family coming together—not distracted, but instead being in the moment—and taking time to do what's important in life," Dan smiles. "That's the kind of experience we want to create when you enjoy our wine—whether in our tasting room or in your own home."

Dan and his wife, Cindy, (DAN-CIN, get it?) built their tasting room, just outside of Jacksonville, to facilitate great conversation and comradery. With tableside service, Dan says, "We literally built DANCIN to facilitate conversation. It's almost like being in an Italian piazza where you're out conversing with people. The ambiance beckons people to come, relax and be served."

The winery and tasting room are magnificently set on the forested foothills of Southern Oregon overlooking the Rogue Valley—one of the most unique terriors in the winemaking world. Here, you can imagine you've been transported to Piedmont, Italy! And aptly so, as critics say the best Italian Barbera comes from southeast Piedmont around the towns of Alba, Asti and Alessandria.

Coincidentally, Alba has been the city of Medford's Sister City for nearly 60 years! At the writing of this article, a contingent from Medford was in Alba for the annual White Truffle Festival and they brought along DANCIN's 2015 Barbera to share.

"Considering the fact that world-class Barbera originated in the hills surrounding Alba and has been produced there for centuries, you might say it was intimidating to take a local Barbera as gifts," said Medford/Jackson County Chamber of Commerce President Brad Hicks. "That is until you taste Dan and Cindy's award-winning Barbera. What has been a fun collaboration between the Chamber, our Alba Sister City Association and DANCIN culminated with the presentation of our special "Alba" Barbera to the Mayor, City Council and the Sister City Committee. Our friends in Alba were so excited to receive "our" Barbera that they invited representatives from the local paper to attend our meeting and photograph the wine bottles."

You may wonder how all these disparate connections came together. Look no further than a 2016 encounter when Dan was sharing the newly-released "Tribute" Barbera with Brad Hicks.

After some thoughtful conversation, the idea of bottling a Barbera in honor of the sister city relationship between Alba, Italy, and Medford, Oregon, was born. Several meetings ensued between the Alba Sister City Association, Brad and Dan, and they collectively decided to call the wine, "Sorella," meaning sister in Italian. The back label included the Alba crest and the story of the relationship between the two communities.

DANCIN produced 10 cases of the 2015 "Sorella," and because there was a chance that this wine could make it into the hands of the traditional Barbera wine producers in Italy, Dan was a little apprehensive. "We knew the wine was delicious, so we entered it into the largest competition of American wines in the world—the San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition—and patiently awaited the results." Dan recalled, "To our delight, we earned a Double Gold, which confirmed our thoughts about the quality of this wine."

In 2018, Dan had a chance to share his 2016 "Tribute" Barbera first-hand as the Chamber hosted the Mayor of Alba and his council members in Medford. Dan graciously hosted the group in the winery's piazza for a meal including DANCIN's famous stuffed mushrooms, Caesar salad, homemade thin crust pizza and dessert paired with their Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and—of course—Barbera.

With a knowing smile, Dan recounted, "It was a great time of food, friends, family, wine and wonderful conversations and friendly debates about farming practices in Medford compared to the way they farm in Alba. It was a spirited discussion and it's just what friends, "sisters" and families do!"

Are you ready to try some Barbera? You can still get the DANCIN 2017 "Tribute," which won best of class at the 2019 Sunset Magazine International Wine Competition and the 2017 "Onore" Barbera, which won the best overall Barbera at the 2019 San Francisco International Wine Competition. And there's more to look forward to as the 2018 vintage will likely have a third, and possibly a fourth in the lineup. Dan will be unveiling the details soon at oregonbarbera.com and dancin.com.

DANCIN

LAST SEPTEMBER MARKED THE OPENING OF HUMMINGBIRD ESTATE, the Rogue Valley's most remarkable wine destination, unique by way of being among the newest and oldest. While the brand marks its first estate release with the 2019 vintage, the heritage site with its set piece estate house, dates from the 1920's. Lovingly and meticulously restored, it invites you to take a step back in time—with a glass of fine wine in hand.

For over 60 years, the 47-acre site on Old Stage Road just a couple of miles outside Jacksonville was the home of Alfred SV Carpenter, known as Alf, and his wife Helen whom he met while on a world cruise and married in Cairo, Egypt in 1922. Helen was the daughter of Harlow E. Bundy whose Bundy Manufacturing Company, founded with his brother Willard in 1889, would morph into the Computing-Tabulating-Recording Company in 1911, which in turn became International Business Machines (IBM) in 1924.

Alf and Helen lived in Pasadena, California for five years before coming to Southern Oregon where Alf had operated Veritas Orchard with his brother Leonard during the Rogue Valley Orchard boom. Besides operating the orchard, Alf would help found Southern Oregon Sales (SOS) a fruit packing cooperative. The SOS warehouse still stands at Stewart Avenue and Route 99 in Medford.

In 1926-7 Alf and Helen built a large Rogue Valley home that they called "Topsides." Surrounded by pear orchards at the end of a serpentine drive lined with locust trees, the gracious English Cottagestyle home designed by Medford architect Louis B. Humphreys is notable both as a structure of historic importance and for the role it played in the development of the Rogue Valley as the locus for events the Carpenters hosted to support their many charitable interests.

The Carpenters began their career as social benefactors during World War II when they established the Jackson County Recreation Committee to see to the well-being of soldiers stationed at Fort White. The Recreation Committee would become the Carpenter Foundation through which the Carpenters would provide financial support to Medford's Community Hospital, later Rogue Valley Medical Center, the local Red Cross, the Oregon Shakespeare Festival (OSF), the Britt Music Festival and the Craterian Performing Arts Center. It's actually true that ivy cuttings from Topsides were planted to adorn the walls around OSF's Elizabethan Theater. Today the Carpenter Foundation continues as a mainstay of Southern Oregon arts, health and community organizations.

Because of its architectural and social significance, the Carpenter house was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 2005. The property was acquired in 2017 by Ed and Susan Walk, Midwestern farmers whose daughter Kristina had married a Rogue Valley native, Tim Alvarez. Kristina and Tim met at Southeast Missouri State University. "Tim was majoring in baseball," Kristina says. "We were married when I was barely 20 in my junior year and he was drafted by the San Francisco Giants." After several years in the minor leagues, Tim retired from baseball and—much like Alf Carpenter—opted to return to Southern Oregon.

After Tim and Kristina moved back to the Rogue Valley and Tim joined his father's business, Claudio Alvarez Construction, Kristina's parents decided to find a property in Oregon that would allow them to spend part of their time near their daughter and her family.

Owner of a thousand acres in Illinois, Ed needed space to call his own as well as a property that would keep him busy. "He felt that if there's not three or four hours of work every day I'm bored," Kristina explains. Once a realtor showed him the old Carpenter place and he sat down on the patio to gaze out across the terraced landscape designed by Charles Howard Voorhies, "He said, "here." He loved the view and the climate and saw three or four hours of work to do every day for the rest of his life." She laughs, probably because the task of restoring the property and starting a vineyard would far exceed that.

The restoration aimed at preserving what was going on inside, Kristina continues. "Is why it was such a long process." Pulling up carpet uncovered unique period flooring such as Zenitherm, a stone alternative made of cornstalks. When mirrors were removed from one wall in the downstairs sitting room a fireplace was revealed, set in the original Stone-Tile, an exterior and interior wall block manufactured by the Medford Concrete Construction Company. There are eight fireplaces throughout the home, each one decorated differently with a sculpted metal or tile surround or an ornate hood. The English Cottage-style with Tudor Revival detailing has been preserved throughout, with its whitewashed masonry walls, unpainted lintels (blocks over the doors), beam and plaster or coffered ceilings, wood-paneling and leaded glass windows. Walking through the house you are transported to another time altogether, when you summoned a servant by pressing a discreet button on the wall behind the door. Your lunch might be waiting for you in the pass-through refrigerator, several dishes deposited by the help from the butler's pantry side for you to remove by way of the doors on the dining room side.

The interior restoration includes five bedroom suites on the second floor that are now available for overnight stays. Named for the view from the window, each suite is different in size and feel, but all have the characteristic built-in cabinetry, sitting space, and commodious ensuite bathrooms. You have only to look at the sparkling white "HE" monogrammed robes waiting to enfold you to feel that comfort goes hand in hand with the historical appointments. "It's amazing but it's not imposing," Kristina says, summing it up perfectly: "This style is, take a seat, relax ..."

Now that the vineyard has matured—the first estate vintage, a Rosé of Pinot Noir, will be released in February 2020—and the restoration of the mansion is essentially complete, what will Ed Walk do to keep himself busy going forward? Kristina ticks off a number of future plans. "We put in a wiffle ball field down on the flat where Dad wants to have wiffle ball tournaments. There's an area in a draw that might be suitable for peach trees and ten more acres in the back for vineyard expansion. With the big open spaces and all the shade, I think we'll have a lot of people picnicking. That's my favorite thing right now, that 'picnic basket' feel on a Sunday afternoon."

One thing is safe to say: Hummingbird Estate's future stands secure on this lovingly maintained foundation. For many years to come, Hummingbird Estate will continue to be that place like no other.

For more on Hummingbird Estate, see page 41.

acred water and wine are the latest combo at Neuman Hotel Group, specifically Lithia Springs Resort and Wine Garden. Wine has been cited in literature throughout the ages as a symbol of happiness, friendship, sustenance, life, and transformation. This is illustrated by the transformation that takes place when grapes are fermented.

For centuries, this part of Oregon was famous for the healing properties of the water which contains positive ions to help remove toxins, aches and pains. Native Americans considered this "holy water," and sacred water blessings have been performed onsite. The springs found beneath Lithia Springs Resort are rich in sulfur, lithium, and minerals to aid in stress relief, rejuvenate the soul, help heal the body, and create a deep sense of calm.

The Wine Garden at Lithia Springs Resort is designed to be an oasis for body, mind and spirit. Guests, tourists, and locals alike are invited to enjoy the region's best organic and biodynamic wines sourced from The Applegate Valley. Southern Oregon has become a well-known wine producing region and Joseph Shaughnessy, Sommelier and Tasting Room Manager, has a passion for educating beyond the connoisseur to the consumer.

Joseph shares, "Wine connoisseurs and people in the industry already know and understand the quality of wines that are being produced in Southern Oregon. I find that guests from Napa and Willamette are impressed when they are introduced to the wines we feature. You may be surprised (or not) at how many of them leave the tasting being blown away at the quality of wine in our area. In our tasting room, I'm able to provide an experience of education that translates to time capsules of excellence (bottles of wine) transported to other areas to reach beyond the connoisseur to the consumer."

For Joseph, the tasting room is a medium to showcase the amazing wines being produced in Southern Oregon. For locals it is a place to drink some of the best wines from some of the best producers all in one spot right here in Ashland. It is also a forum for Joseph to engage with visitors and discuss why the Southern Oregon identity is unique and exciting within the wine world. He is laser focused on wine education and is taking a more active role in staff trainings and tastings within the Neuman Hotel Group and plans to expand that further. He sees the Wine Garden at Lithia Springs Resort as an excellent forum to offer specialized classes in the future and he's working on ideas to do just that.

The initial path Joseph took with his with his wine education was through the Court of Master Sommeliers. He continues to expand his wine education and takes great pleasure in introducing tasting room guests to the wines featured. He's currently studying with the Wine Spirit Education Trust.

Rotating selections from Cowhorn, Quady North and Troon can be found at the Wine Garden year-round. "A partnership with Applegate wineries benefits our resort guests, other travelers, as well as locals, who many times do not have time to drive to the Applegate Valley, but look for that unique Southern Oregon wine tasting experience. A visit to the resort's tasting room can be a great addition to any itinerary, says Karolina Lavagnino Director of Sales & Marketing.

Each of the partner wineries operate from a values-based framework and use sustainable practices. Troon Vineyard is dedicated to regenerative agriculture - they practice biodynamic farming in their quest to put back more than they take from their plants and soils. The philosophy of Quady North is that their wines are expressions of the climate, soils, and people who farm them. This is evident in their organic wines. Cowhorn Winery focuses on biodynamic practices. They create an educational experience that combines wine, community, and heart—and say the extraordinary intellect of the mind is matched by the extraordinary complexity of the earth.

According to Dana Keller, Director of Food and Beverage at Neuman Hotel Group, the wine selections and partner wineries were carefully hand-selected. "We chose to feature wine from Applegate wineries that focus on honesty, integrity, self-care and wellness. This means we all have aligned values and the growing practices reflect this. We also offer specialty charcuterie and cheese boards featuring some local flavor and designed to complement our current wine flights."

The ambiance at Lithia Springs Resort and Wine Garden is friendly and inviting. The décor was inspired by Becky Neuman who has a hand in all interior design for each Neuman Hotel Group property. In the summer and spring months you can enjoy sips and bites on the garden patio or wander throughout the gorgeous property and put your feet in the grass. During the fall and winter months you can enjoy your tasting experience in front of the fire in the tasting room.

The tasting room is open Thursday through Sunday, from 2-8pm, to give resort guests, visitors, and local residents ample time to enjoy the Southern Oregon wine tasting experience. The property at Lithia Springs offers privacy, organic gardens, a Fitness Cottage nestled behind the Spa Bungalows, and a gourmet, house-made breakfast each morning. Guests can enjoy the saline water swimming pool, bike rentals and a branch of Waterstone Spa onsite for massages. Plus, each room boasts a spring-fed soaking tub with healing waters piped-in to allow guests to luxuriate in a private spa-like experience.

The water story of our resort began centuries ago when Native Americans first discovered the mineral springs. They learned about their healing properties, and declared them "common ground" for the benefit of all tribes. Stores and legends grew and the waters became sacred. Tribal differences were set aside, so everyone could enjoy the curative waters. Our mission at the resort is to preserve nature and share its abundance with our quests. The Wine Garden is a place to experience true relaxation through Earth's healing elements. ~ Becky Neuman

ELIANA WINES is the label of Brian and Carien Jordaan. Brian, a one-time commercial grower of roses, adapted his "soft-handed" horticultural technique to his wine grapes. Since 2008, Brian and his family have tended Bella Vista Vineyard in the Pompadour Bluff area east of Ashland planted to Merlot, Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon. The vines, now nearly twenty-three years-old, have yielded exquisite fruit under Jordaan's care.

Since 2010, Jordaan has added Tempranillo to his wine list of exquisite Bordeaux varietals and blends. From Thistlecroft Vineyard, a neighbor to Bella Vista, the Tempranillo is a lush mélange of aromas and flavors featuring ripe strawberry and dark cherry notes. Most recently, they earned gold medals at the 2020 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition for the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon and the 2011 Reserve Bordeaux and silver for the 2015 Cabernet Franc.

At the 2020 McMinville Wine & Food Classic, they also earned gold for the 2015 Cabernet Franc and silver for the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon and the 2011 Reserve Bordeaux. Recently, they also began offering their first Port-style dessert wine, that earned a 90 point score from Wine Enthusiast.

Wine adventurers interested in a South African wine adventure, photographic safaris, Robbin Island, Table Mountain, should contact Brian for more information. Trips run late October through November.

PLATT ANDERSON CELLARS' tasting room on Ashland's main drag combines the best of art and science—literally. Located in the Ashland Art Center, the intimate space with two high top tables, a settee and a wine bar is surrounded by the work of over forty local artists. The entire art center is a licensed premise, so you can take your wine with you as you stroll the galleries and studios at your leisure. Or, sit and sip comfortably and watch the Ashland scene through picture windows fronting Main Street.

And the science? That would be the science of making great wine as practiced by retired medical doctor turned enologist Gill Anderson. Gill and his wife Shelby Platt established Ashland's first urban winery when they turned their garage into a fully permitted production space. Sourcing grapes from Southern Oregon's finest vineyards, Platt Anderson produces only 500 cases annually, a quantity that allows for hands-on involvement at every step of the process. Over a dozen wines—four of which won awards at the 2018 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition—are available by taste, glass or bottle. The bottle shop also carries vintages from five other local wineries, giving guests a wide palate of style and varietals to choose from. Be sure and watch their website for upcoming chef's dinners and gallery events at this unique gem right downtown.

ROXYANN WINERY was originally the pear growing and packing operation known as Hillcrest Orchard. But Jack Day, grandson of the Seattle businessman who became owner and manager of Hillcrest in 1908, had other ideas. Day planted wine grapes on 20 acres of the south-facing slope of RoxyAnn Peak where shallow clay soils are perfect for Bordeaux varietals. With the first harvest in 2001, RoxyAnn Winery was born.

Today the RoxyAnn estate vineyard runs to 70 acres from which the winery produces 15,000 cases of award-winning Claret, Pinot Gris, Sauvignon Blanc, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Tempranillo, Viognier, Syrah, Pinot Noir, and Chardonnay. Recently, their 2012 Claret was awarded Double-Gold at the 2016 Oregon Wine Experience! Many of the original Hillcrest Orchard buildings, added to the National Register of Historic Places in 1984, are still used by the winery. Visitors will enjoy the warm, old-fashioned atmosphere of the tasting room featuring premium estate wines and gourmet items. The quaint setting notwithstanding, RoxyAnn adheres to enlightened sustainable farming practices and employs state-of-the-art methods in wine production, supporting preservation of the natural surroundings while ensuring the finest fruit and superior wines. The tasting room is open seven days a week.

With over 12 years experience buying and selling wine in the Rogue Valley, Margo's incredible hospitality and extensive knowledge of wine ensures that she is able to find her clientele the perfect bottle for any occasion.

DEL RIO VINEYARDS is both a place deeply rooted in history and a winery reflecting the latest in viticulture and enology. The tasting room was built in 1864 and served for many years as the Rock Point Stage Hotel. The parcel of land that comprises one of the largest winegrowing operations in the Rogue Valley was a payment to the original owner for his service in the Rogue Indian Wars. The big red building displaying the Del Rio name that today houses the winery began as the fruit packinghouse of Del Rio Orchards.

Del Rio's estate Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Malbec, Merlot, Muscat, Pinot Gris, Pinot Noir, Syrah and Viognier, reflect the timehonored traditions of Old World winemaking blended with New World innovation by winemaker Jean-Michel Jussiaume.

As the weather warms up, spring and summer bring with it fun activities at Del Rio Vineyards! Come and enjoy wine tasting and picnicking in our beautiful backyard as you take in breathtaking views of our 300 acre vineyard. Our concert series runs throughout the summer, featuring local bands and tantalizing food trucks. By late summer, come pick a beautiful bouquet of flowers for yourself and a loved one in our "Flower it Forward" Zinnia garden. And in July, spend an elegant evening dining al-fresco in our vineyard during our annual, "Dinner Under the Stars," event with exquisite catering by the Jacksonville Inn paired with our delicious Del Rio Wines.

DAISY CREEK VINEYARD owners Russ and Margaret Lyon came to Jacksonville in 1994 looking for a place similar to the Northern Rhone Valley's famous Côte Rotie, (roasted slope) the perfect place to grow Syrah and Viognier. On a 23-acre tract where fortune-seekers once panned Daisy Creek for gold, the Lyons planted a couple of acres of vines. Thanks in large part to the mineral-laden soils washed down from the Siskiyou Mountains by the creek, and in larger part to the hard work of the couple tending the vines, the fruit they're growing turned out to be good—really good.

Today the vineyard occupies over half of the property and produces eight wine grape varietals that include Viognier, Marsanne, Roussanne, and Malbec, Syrah, and Petit Verdot.

Virtually all the single vintage varietals have won medals at competitions including San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition and Oregon Wine Experience. This year, look for the release of new white wines, including a Chardonnay, a Petit Verdot, Malbec, Syrah and a new red blend, "Bonne Fete Rogue."

The Lyons offer visitors a casual tasting room experience and are delighted to point-out the location of a slurry mine, a reminder of the old-timers who came seeking gold. Most of them never found any. Margaret and Russ certainly did.

DANCIN is the marriage of science and art. The pairing of simple Italian fare and fine wine. And the sincere passion of Dan and Cindy.

Romance and wine have gone hand in hand for centuries and it's only fitting that the genesis of DANCIN has its roots in a love story. It's a blend of passion, serendipity, and miracle meetings, and is best heard while sipping wine in one of the picturesque spaces at the couple's tasting room. Suffice it to say, inclement weather and a chance meeting twice on the same day brought the pair together. They were married after three months and have been DANCIN ever since!

Their award-winning wines are truly world-class and the food is simple, terroir-inspired Italian fare made of the freshest, local ingredients. The venue is set magnificently on the forested foothills overlooking the Rogue Valley, one of the most unique terroirs in the wine-making world.

When visiting, you'll imagine you've been transported to Tuscany or Burgundy, or both, but you're at DANCIN, a culinary and viticulture destination of beauty, taste, style, authentic hospitality and award-winning wine. Welcome to the dance!

Situated just minutes from Ashland, Medford and Jacksonville, it's the perfect setting to drink in the views of the Table Rocks, Mt. McLoughlin and the Rogue Valley while savoring award-winning, estate-grown wines along with artisan wood-fired pizzas and much more... all served tableside!

FENCES WINERY produces Cabernet Sauvignon. And what a Cab it is! From its first full production, FENCES started garnering all kinds of awards including FENCES 2014 Reserve Cab being named "One of the Northwest's top Cabs," by Wine Press Northwest, and Wine Enthusiast bestowing 90 and 91points on FENCES Cabernet Sauvignon and its Reserve Cabernet, respectively. Wine Press Northwest's mouthwatering description noted flavors of black plum, cherry pie, black currant, chocolate-covered blueberries and a touch of tobacco. And FENCES' current release is not too far behind with the 2015 vintage racking up awards and taking both Oregon and New York by storm.

And from those very same grapes, last year, FENCES produced its inaugural vintage of Rosé of Cabernet Sauvignon. It flew out as soon as it arrived, but standby, because the 2019 Rosé is being released this May!

The wines are personally presented by owner Jody Lennon with husband David, at their gracious estate-residence with expansive grounds encircled by the vineyard. The setting couldn't be more perfect, nor could the hospitality. With consummate style, Jody entertains groups of six to one hundred. Call to arrange your private tasting, dinner or event. And prepare to be wowed!

HUMMINGBIRD ESTATE is the new identity of a one-hundred-year-old property recently transformed from pear orchard to vineyard. Although this might sound commonplace in the Jacksonville area, where the dynamic wine industry has made dramatic changes to the agricultural landscape, Hummingbird is "a place like no other."

The long, graceful drive, that takes you up a rise through vineyards, ends in an old-growth forest where the gables of the stately, white estate come into view. It's apparent at first glance that this heritage site surrounded by brown stone walls, gardens and wide swaths of lawn, cries out for wedding parties and memory-making events.

Once home to the beloved Carpenter family and the first territorial governor of Alaska, the mansion serves as the hospitality center where visitors taste Hummingbird vintages, enjoy special events or overnight stays in one of the five sumptuous guest suites.

The wines, expertly made by Chris Graves of Naumes Crush and Fermentation, are sourced from select Rogue Valley vineyards, including Hummingbird Estate's own vines.

Hummingbird's gracious elegance will be shared with the community during the 2020 "Copper Door Concert Series" starting in May and running through August. Come find out why Hummingbird Estate is truly a place like no other!

QUADY NORTH's Jacksonville tasting room is located in a charming brick building, reckoned by some to be the old telephone exchange, at the corner of 5th and California Streets. The modest premises belie the big wines inside.

Quady North is the name of Herb Quady's Applegate Valley wine venture, a scion of his parents' Fresno area Quady Winery. QN is known for big, bold Bordeaux and Rhone varietals. After working as Assistant Winemaker at the California Central Coast Bonny Doon Vineyard, Herb came to Oregon to found his own brand, convinced that the truly-compelling wines were being made from grapes grown in cooler areas.

In 2005, the family planted their first 15 acres of Syrah, Cabernet Franc and Viognier on an Applegate Valley hillside. Today, the list of varietals has expanded to include Grenache, Grenache Blanc, Marsanne, Roussanne, Malbec, Mourvèdre, and Merlot. Quady North is committed to producing small lot, minimallyhandled wines sourced primarily from the estate. The focus remains premium Viognier, Cabernet Franc and Syrah, what Herb calls his "love triangle."

Quady North is the recipient of several 90+ point scores from leading publications such as Wine Enthusiast which recently named the Steelhead Run Viognier to their Top 100 list and gave their 2014 Flagship Syrah 95 point honors. Most recently, the 2017 GSM Rosé took Best of Show honors at the 2018 Oregon Wine Experience.

RELLIK WINERY enlivens the Jacksonville wine scene with panache all its own. The totally remodeled tasting room, with its cool, understated vibe, features retractable doors that extend the space onto a grape-arbored patio, but can still seat up to a hundred on chilly days with the doors closed. Rain or shine, there's plenty of space for the party to go on year-round. The wine list offers established favorites such as Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay while tweaking expectations with Three-Eyed Raven, a proprietary red blend destined to become a Rellik classic. Expect new varietals to be added as vineyard plantings of Grenache, Viognier, Merlot and Malbec come into production. The addition of a full commercial kitchen allows you to take advantage of tapas-style food pairings, including European-inspired artisan personal pizzas, and spicy tomato soup made from scratch with gourmet grilled cheese sandwiches. In season, salads and locally-sourced cheese plates will feature pears from the estate orchard.

Also new is the outdoor, all-purpose event space centered around a white gazebo, the archetypal wedding setting, with a breezy, shaded lawn and footpath that invites the celebration to flow around the adjacent pond. The Rellik House, a complex of three suites with pool and fire pit, is available year-round for overnight stays. At Rellik, the celebration doesn't need to end at closing time.

LONGSWORD VINEYARD offers an unforgettable slice of authentic Southern Oregon wine culture. Family-owned, operated, and farmed, they specialize in unique wines as complex as they are enjoyable. The family prides itself on serving its exceptional, Italianstyle wines in a relaxed, informal atmosphere that speaks to wine aficionados and novices alike. Located in the heart of the Applegate Valley, the venue features stunning, panoramic views of the surrounding Cascade and Siskiyou mountain ranges, making for a truly delightful wine tasting experience.

Spring is always an exciting time as warm air heralds the return of paraglider and hanglider pilots who take flight from nearby Woodrat mountain and land in front of the tasting room, providing wonderful live entertainment. Longer days also provide opportunities to meet the many animals that call LongSword home, including a flock of 28 Plymouth Barred Rock chickens, three Pilgrim geese, and three resident Babydoll Southdown rams: Hawking, Einstein, and Newton. You may also be greeted by LongSword's rather loud but very friendly resident Aussie fluffball, Rogue.

This spring, be sure to attend two beloved and free events—the fifth-annual Kite Festival on Mother's Day Weekend, featuring a beautiful aerial spectacle of kites (guests are welcome to bring their own and join in the fun!) and the third-annual Applegate Open International Paragliding Competition in June, with two days to watch dozens of pilots land at LongSword.

DEVITT WINERY was founded in 2003 by Jim Devitt after he and his wife, Sue, relocated from Napa Valley, where they owned Pope Valley Winery. Today, the family tradition continues with grandson, Brendon Butler, after he took over as winemaker in January 2017 following ten years of on-the-job training as Jim's intern, supplemented with enology classes at Umpqua Community College and U.C. Davis.

The winery remains a small, family-owned operation where all winemaking processes are overseen by the Devitt family. The winery focuses on Pinot Noir, Viognier, Syrah, Cab Franc and Merlot. The wines are aged in-barrel to produce a pleasant mouth feel with full-body characteristics which are all drinkable when purchased with no need to lay them down. Visitors to the tasting room will find the winemaker on-hand to answer any questions along with bottles of all vintages ready to take home and enjoy now.

In keeping with family tradition, visitors will be greeted with a smile and treated to outstanding wines and conversation!

Distinctive from land to glass.

From lush valley floors to steep, terraced hillsides, vineyards are planted on all kinds of topography in countless wine regions around the world. While wine country is always picturesque, few settings are as strikingly beautiful as the Applegate Valley in Southern Oregon. In what Sunset Magazine called "Wine country the way it should be," here you'll find a group of 19 unique wineries producing a diverse array of outstanding wines.

VALLEY VIEW WINERY is an iconic name in the Rogue Valley. Not only is it the name of Peter Britt's original Jacksonville winery, circa 1858, but it also became the name of the first modern winery in the Rogue Valley. Founded by Frank and Ann Wisnovsky, Valley View first made wine in 1976. Using fruit from his Applegate Valley estate, planted in 1972, Wisnovsky made Bordeaux varietals up until his death in 1980 when Valley View operations were passed on to Ann and sons.

The winery, celebrating its 44th anniversary, is now owned and operated by sons Mark and Michael Wisnovsky. The vineyard has more than doubled in size since the original planting and now includes Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Pinot Noir, Tempranillo, Viognier, Malbec and Syrah. Wines have been made by UC Davistrained enologist John F. Guerrero since 1985.

Wines offered at the Applegate Valley Wine Pavilion in Ruch include Rogue Valley red and white blends, as well as Chardonnay, Viognier, Syrah, Tempranillo, Pinot Noir, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, several dessert wines and a Port-style wine bottled under the premium Anna Maria label. Visitors are encouraged to bring a picnic and enjoy fine wines and some of the best views of the Applegate Valley from the tasting room, patios and expansive lawn areas.

Petite Sirah-JETT Fuel
Sweet Dahlia-Reserve Red

GUZZO FAMILY VINEYARD is a limited-production winery established in 2012. Paula and Tony Guzzo, winemakers and husband and wife, team-up to produce handcrafted red wines. Their small vineyard produces Reserve Port Style Dessert Wines, Petite Sirah–JETT Fuel and Sweet Dahlia-Reserve Red. The 2017 Jett Fuel just won Gold at the 2019 Oregon Wine Experience, while the 2018 Jett Fuel took a Silver Medal at the 2020 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition. Sweet Dahlia was said to be "dangerously delicious" when it received the December, 2019 "Cellar Select" award from Oregon Wine Press.

Other wines produced include Tempranillo, Syrah, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and LoCo Red Blend, all finished in 30-gallon American oak barrels, a smaller size than is commonly used. This gentle process results in wines that melt on the palate. The wines continue to prove their excellence as shown by the 2016 Syrah and 2016 Tempranillo which took Double Gold along with the 2017 Cabernet and Merlot that won Silvers at the 2019 Oregon Wine Experience. At the 2020 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition, the LoCo Red took Silver and the 2017 Syrah took Gold, which also is January 2020 OWP "Cellar Select."

"Unconventional" is the hallmark of Guzzo, where the winery and tasting room double as the production site where they ferment, press, barrelage and bottle wines. The unique and intimate tasting room features Paula's hand-painted wine barrels and artwork, where you can also hear about their adventures in winemaking.

SCHMIDT FAMILY VINEYARDS is considered a top wine destination in the Applegate Valley, operated by three generations growing grapes and producing wine together. While Cal Schmidt remains the patriarch and winemaker, his daughter Rene, winemaker and Certified Sommelier, along with her son, Duncan, make up the multi-generational winemaking team. Other family members have roles in accounting, marketing, food service, events and today, even the fourth generation can be seen playing on the grounds or fishing in the pond!

The 75-acre estate includes 40 acres currently planted with plans for an additional 20 acres of grape production that yields 3500 cases of wine yearly from 14 grape varietals. Four of the acres are beautifully landscaped for guest use with a beautiful craftsman-style tasting room, stunning flower gardens, two large greenhouses as well as a large vegetable garden that supplies produce used in the winery kitchen. The outdoor pizza oven, built by Cal and his grandsons, is often operated by grandson Spencer, master of the perfect pizza, baguette or loaf of sourdough bread to accompany the extraordinary wines.

The estate is impeccably maintained with expansive lawn areas, fabulous gardens and a large duck pond that makes a stroll of the grounds a joyous occasion. At Schmidt Family Vineyards, there's something for everyone!

SCHULTZ GLORY OAKS Vineyard & Farm is one of the newer venues in the Applegate Valley. Owners Greg and Debbie Schultz took their first steps toward becoming viticulturists while living in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Their journey began with a few classes on wine at LSU that sparked a tasting trip to Southern Oregon, where it was love at first sight. Greg and Debbie were enchanted by the beauty of the land, the friendliness of the people, and the opportunities in the wine industry. Schultz Wines was established in 2010 and their wines have been made by Linda Donovan and her talented team at Pallet Wine Company ever since.

The first bottling of Schultz Wine was a 2010 Chardonnay and not long after, they purchased the property that would become Glory Oaks. Tempranillo, Viognier, and five traditional Bordeaux varietals now share their six acre lower vineyard with small flocks of chickens and sheep. The ranch house has been converted into a solar-powered tasting room, offering stunning views of the vineyard and valley. In 2019, Burgundian varietals were planted on a steep, north facing two acre upper vineyard site about 100 feet in elevation above and behind the tasting room.

Bring a picnic lunch and enjoy deck-seating with views of the surrounding hills and valleys, and the sounds of birds and the creek. It's the perfect pairing—a great story and fine wines!

WOOLDRIDGE CREEK WINERY & CRUSHPAD CREAMERY is home to a winery, vineyard, a creamery...and now a charcuterie! And, it's a story about a place, a partnership and a plan. The place is a hillside vineyard deep in the Applegate Valley winegrowing region of Southern Oregon. The partnership arose between the couple who planted the vineyard back in 1977 and the couple who wanted to add a winery to that vineyard. The plan came together in 2005 when the winery was built and Wooldridge Creek vineyard became Wooldridge Creek Vineyard and Winery.

The original 18-acre vineyard has expanded to 56, planted to Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Syrah, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Viognier, Gewürztraminer, Zinfandel, Malbec, Riesling and Tempranillo. The two couples are still committed to the vision that brought them together. And the plan has succeeded beyond belief.

The sustainably-designed winery offers unparalleled mountain and valley views—the perfect spot to gather with friends. Today, visitors can now sample cheeses and salami made on-site, making it the first combined winery, creamery & charcuterie in Oregon! And the story just keeps getting better with the recent opening of the Downtown Grants Pass tasting room—VINFARM—at 111 SE "G" Street. Check the website for upcoming wine dinners and more.

For five years, Oregon Wine Experience has attracted thousands of patrons from around the world to experience the superior culinary and wine creations Oregon is home to. World-renowned judges evaluate the incredible wines the state has to offer through the Oregon Wine Competition, and these wines are celebrated, and consumed, during the August mega-event. For the first time ever, a Northern winery reaped a Best of Show medal for the "red" category, alongside two Southern Oregon vintners. These wines, along with the other 82 medal winners, left an impression with the judges: that Oregon has some of the best wines in the world. Though, it's important to note that the breadth and depth of this event spans beyond the vines.

As Asante Foundation's signature event, Oregon Wine Experience demonstrates a key differentiator among other like-events. While celebrating premier local wineries and top culinary talent, 100 percent of the proceeds benefit charity, locally. In 2019, Oregon Wine Experience generated more than $1.7 million for Asante Children's Miracle Network and other health care programs at Asante—proving to be one of the fastest-growing charitable wine events in the country.

As one of 170 Children's Miracle Network hospitals in the country, Asante Rogue Regional Medical Center is the only primary care center for children in Northern California and Southern Oregon with a dedicated Pediatric Department, Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU), Pediatric Oncology Department and a Maternal Fetal Clinic—a key regional destination for compassionate care. This year, attendees will experience an exciting shift and realize their participation with Oregon Wine Experience will have an even greater impact through "AsanteForward," a $50 million capital campaign that will transform the quality and scope of health care in our region. A component of this campaign is to build a new women's and children's hospital within a hospital. Having this area of excellence will provide patients in our region with access to world-class health care.

"Proceeds from Oregon Wine Experience are more impactful than ever as Asante plans, and grows, for decades from now. We will have more room, better technology and more efficiency to care for patients in a space specifically designed for them," says Andrea Reeder, Campaign Director, Asante Foundation.

The AsanteForward Women's and Children's Health Initiative includes the following enhancements:

- 14 new Labor and Delivery rooms
- 2 new C-Section rooms
- 16 Private NICU rooms
- Co-location of all pediatric services
- Outpatient pediatric infusions
- A special care nursery with private rooms
- A designated area for an OB Emergency Department
- Advanced medical therapies and specialized treatment for women of all ages and stages

The women's and children's hospital will have its own designated entrance and elevator to enhance safety for patients, all housed in the top two floors of a new patient pavilion that will be home to several areas of excellence.

"As attendees sip their award-winning wine next year, they'll also be helping Asante transform the future of health care for patients in our region. There are few events that bring together a community like Oregon Wine Experience does," says Floyd Harmon, Executive Director, Asante Foundation.

Oregon Wine Experience continues to grow year-over-year and so does its impact—a pinnacle opportunity for wineries and our community to be a part of. We'll see you in August under the tent!

Bringing a big-city sensibility to farm-fresh food, chef Chad Hahn coaxed a full-service restaurant from a cadre of cured meats, cheeses and fine wine.

Small-plate specials at Wooldridge Creek Winery's Vinfarm rapidly evolved under Hahn's direction into weekend brunch and, finally, a diverse array of dishes that uphold the do-it-yourself ethic of co-owners Greg Paneitz and Kara Olmo. The couple, nearly two years ago, conceived cheeses and charcuterie handcrafted at their Applegate Valley estate to accompany wine flights at their downtown Grants Pass tasting room.

"We make everything ourselves," says Olmo. "We're not paying wholesale for everything."

That includes all the crackers, condiments and fermented vegetables, which Hahn makes in house, for Vinfarm's cheese and charcuterie boards. The 38-year-old's commitment to preparing not only patés, terrines, salami and prosciutto, but their myriad accompaniments "rekindled" Vinfarm owners' original mission of being food artisans, says Olmo.

"I think we have a really unique set of circumstances," says Hahn, characterizing Vinfarm, at its most ambitious, as "a fully functional farm with value-added products" and, at the very least, "a really beautiful test kitchen."

Hahn operated a "process kitchen" at full speed for about a year to meet Vinfarm's charcuterie needs, plus extra for retail sale at the tasting room and winery. But tables and chairs visible from highly-trafficked G Street sat empty, belying how busy the adjacent tasting room had become.

"We had this dining room space that was lying fallow," says Hahn. "And we wanted to see people in it."

Dinner service and extended operating hours debuted last fall. With Hahn's culinary expertise vetted by urban diners on their side, Olmo and Paneitz decided to be "what people want" — a fully fledged restaurant — rather than remain a tasting room with gourmet nibbles.

"People really want to eat," says Olmo.

Hahn feeds them in a playful style derived from time spent in both rustic and refined settings. He describes Vinfarm's ambiance as a bistro serving meals that are "out of people's normal" when it comes to both ingredient choices and wine pairings.

"A lot of it is driven by produce availability," says Hahn, who honed his skills with produce at Chicago's erstwhile vegetarian establishment Green Zebra, owned by James Beard Award winner Shawn McClain.

Without being a slave to seasonality, Hahn highlights Southern Oregon's freshest fruits and vegetables in the moment and also preserves them for months to come. He pickles spring mushrooms and garlic scapes, ferments daikon radish and a host of other, more common vegetables, and transforms peppers, citrus and herbs into jellies, jams and sauces that fuse flavors from around the globe.

The Chicago native's experience with Moroccan cuisine is evident in Vinfarm's ground-beef skewers served with a dipping sauce of preserved lemon. About a dozen flavor profiles, including Wooldridge Creek wines, are incorporated in Vinfarm's salami. Coriander and ice wine are a light contrast to malbec-infused meat. In case customers aren't aware of the singularity of Vinfarm's salami, it's poised to be the first licensed for retail sale by Oregon Department of Agriculture.

Expending no small effort on "winning the salami game," Hahn acknowledges that the ways in which Vinfarm is pushing the envelope today will be the norm in a decade. It's all part of the pioneering spirit of Paneitz and Olmo, among the first winemakers in Southern Oregon to service restaurant accounts with wine in kegs, rather than bottles. The cost savings on packaging, says Olmo, are passed along to customers, who can order a sandwich for $7, salad for $8 and steak for $21.

"Vinfarm is surprisingly affordable."
