ELIANA WINES established in 2008, is the label of Brian and Carien Jordaan, a boutique winery producing under 700 cases per year. Brian, a one-time commercial grower of roses, adapted his "soft-handed" horticultural technique to his wine grapes. Since 2008, Brian and his family have tended Bella Vista Vineyard in the Pompadour Bluff area east of Ashland planted to Merlot, Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon. The vines, now twenty-five years-old, have yielded exquisite fruit under Jordaan's care.

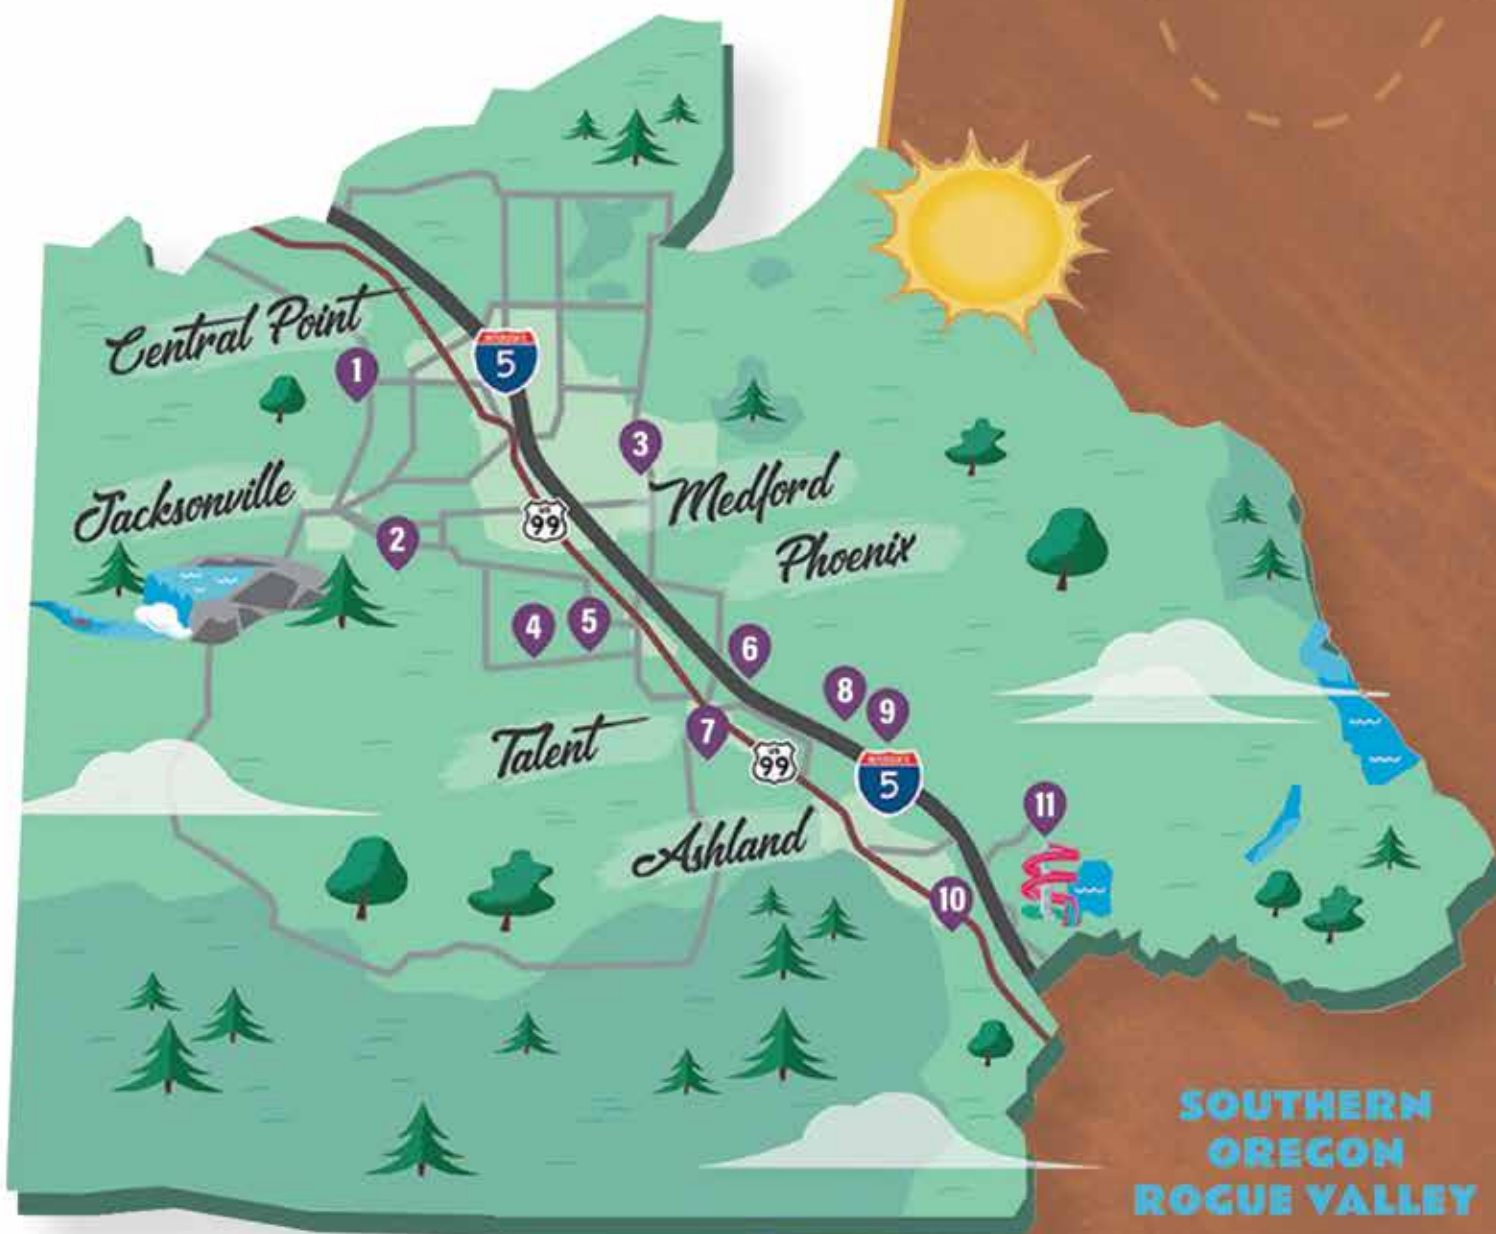

The just-released Cabernet Sauvignon is full-bodied, showing flavors of currants, dark cherry and sandalwood—a beautifully balanced vintage with 30 months in barrel. Jordaan has added a neighboring vineyard, Thistlecroft, a well-established vineyard, producing Tempranillo, Merlot and Cabernet Franc. The Tempranillo offers a lush mélange of aromas and flavors featuring ripe strawberry and dark cherry notes. New to the lineup is an exquisite Cabernet Franc Blanc, an elegant tropical wine with a beautiful mouth feel. Eliana Wines has earned numerous gold medals at prestigious nationwide competitions.

Brian and Carien believe that wine is to be enjoyed with friends and loved ones, is something to gather around, to experience life together with, and to create lasting memories. Travel and wine enthusiasts interested in a late October-November wine and adventure trip to Brian's homeland in Southern Africa, including wine, food, art, history, photographic safaris and more, should contact Brian for more information.

WEISINGER FAMILY WINERY was first planted in 1978 by John Weisinger and is one of the oldest vineyards in the Rogue Valley. The winery, established 10 years after the vineyard was planted in 1988, was one of the first wineries in the region to begin producing wine. The tasting room is the first one that visitors will encounter upon entering Oregon on Interstate 5 after descending Siskiyou Summit. With fruit sourced from local vineyards, many managed by the Weisinger family, the wines are made by second-generation winemaker, and owner, Eric Weisinger.

Be sure to try their award-winning, and sought-after, Estate Tempranillo along with Grenache, Malbec and Cabernet Franc. And don't miss the whites—Roussanne, Viognier and Sauvignon Blanc, the latter being a specialty of Eric's from many years working in the Marlborough Region of New Zealand.

Whether tasting wine in the intimate tasting room or relaxing on one of the spacious decks with amazing views of the rugged Cascade mountain range in the distance, Weisinger Family Winery is the perfect place to relax and savor a glass of truly Southern Oregon craft wine.

Local visual artists are featured monthly in the tasting room. And don't forget about their unique Vineyard Cottage that's available for overnight stays— the perfect place for a romantic weekend or just the spot to relax and enjoy a vineyard getaway!

ROXYANN WINERY was originally the pear growing and packing operation known as Hillcrest Orchard. But Jack Day, grandson of the Seattle businessman who became owner and manager of Hillcrest in 1908, had other ideas. Day planted wine grapes on 20 acres of the south-facing slope of RoxyAnn Peak where shallow clay soils are perfect for Bordeaux varietals. With the first harvest in 2001, RoxyAnn Winery was born.

Today the RoxyAnn estate vineyard runs to 70 acres from which the winery produces 15,000 cases of award-winning Claret, Pinot Gris, Sauvignon Blanc, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Tempranillo, Viognier, Syrah, Pinot Noir, and Chardonnay. Recently, their 2018 Petite Sirah was awarded Double-Gold at the 2022 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition! Many of the original Hillcrest Orchard buildings, added to the National Register of Historic Places in 1984, are still used by the winery. Visitors will enjoy the warm, old-fashioned atmosphere of the tasting room featuring premium estate wines and gourmet items. The quaint setting notwithstanding, RoxyAnn adheres to enlightened sustainable farming practices and employs state-of-the-art methods in wine production, supporting preservation of the natural surroundings while ensuring the finest fruit and superior wines. The tasting room is open seven days a week.

CLIFF CREEK CELLARS' 230+ acre Sam's Valley Vineyard is located in the heart of Southern Oregon's wine region, just northeast of Gold Hill. This family-owned farm has been farmed for many years by the Garvin family and is also used to graze cattle and grow grass, hay, and alfalfa. CCC is a family-friendly vineyard that's easily accessible from I-5, making for a great place to stop for wine tasting after hiking, rafting, or fishing the Upper Rogue River. No matter what your outdoor fun is in this picturesque valley, Cliff Creek is nearby as an end-of-day oasis.

Taking advantage of the warmth and sunlight, 70 acres is planted to Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Sangiovese, and Syrah. Events and the beautiful setting are not the only reasons to visit as Cliff Creek boasts a lineup of award-winning wines. Their most recent medals include a Best in Class for their 2017 Syrah and Double Gold medal for the 2020 Red Red Wine from the San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition, along with a host of other golds and silvers for their Claret, Cabernet Sauvignon, MRV and Cabernet Franc at the McMinnville Wine Classic and the Oregon Wine Competition.

DEL RIO VINEYARDS is both a place deeply rooted in history and a winery reflecting the latest in viticulture and enology. The tasting room was built in 1864 and served for many years as the Rock Point Stage Hotel. The parcel of land that comprises one of the largest wine-growing operations in the Rogue Valley was originally a pear orchard, and the big red building displaying the Del Rio name that today houses the winery began as the fruit packinghouse of Del Rio Orchards.

Del Rio's estate Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Malbec, Merlot, Muscat, Pinot Gris, Pinot Noir, Syrah and Viognier, reflect the time-honored traditions of Old World winemaking blended with New World innovation by head winemaker Jean-Michel Jussiaume. In addition to the Estate brand, Del Rio crafts two other wine brands: Jolee Wines & Rock Point Wines. The semi-sparkling Jolee Rosé is Oregon's favorite rosé with its hint of sweetness and bubbles. The Rock Point Wines reflect our heart for adventuring in Oregon—all five wines are approved for everyday sipping.

As the weather warms up, spring and summer bring with it fun activities at Del Rio Vineyards! Come and enjoy wine tasting and picnicking in our beautiful backyard as you take in breathtaking views of our 300 acre vineyard. Our Sunday music series runs throughout the summer, featuring local musicians. By late summer, come pick a beautiful bouquet of flowers for yourself and a loved one in our "Flower it Forward" Zinnia garden. Fall is a beautiful time to visit as we celebrate harvest and the start of a new vintage!

AWEN WINECRAFT’S tasting room, dubbed the “Inspiration Station,” in the heart of downtown Jacksonville, offers heated outdoor seating along with comfortable indoor seating with hand-crafted woodwork and a laid-back, “rock and roll” vibe.

Co-owners and winemakers Sean Hopkins and Tom Homewood started making wine together at home in Santa Cruz, California, in 2006. In 2011, Sean’s journey north to Southern Oregon then included experimentation with local varietals, specifically the Rhône, Italian and Spanish varietals that grow so well here.

Fast forward to 2016 and Awen Winecraft was born. Taking its name, “Awen,” from the Celtic word, “Rune,” meaning the spark of creativity or the source of divine inspiration, Awen embarked on a different path with respect to the wines produced, focusing on balance and working within the limits of what the local fruit can provide. Awen focuses on “off the beaten path” varietals, such as Grenache Blanc, Vermentino, and Dolcetto, as well as some more popular varietals in the area, like Tempranillo and Viognier. Each wine is hand-crafted with a goal of achieving balance.

Awen has won numerous awards for their wines in Oregon and nationwide. Visit them and get a taste of what they call, “Local Liquid Poetry.”

DAISY CREEK VINEYARD owner Russ Lyon came to Jacksonville in 1994 with his wife, Margaret, looking for a place similar to the Northern Rhone Valley's famous Côte Rotie, (roasted slope) the perfect place to grow Syrah and Viognier. On a 23-acre tract where fortune-seekers once panned Daisy Creek for gold, the Lyons planted a couple of acres of vines. Thanks in large part to the mineral-laden soils washed down from the Siskiyou Mountains by the creek, and in larger part to the hard work of the couple tending the vines, the fruit they're growing turned out to be good—really good.

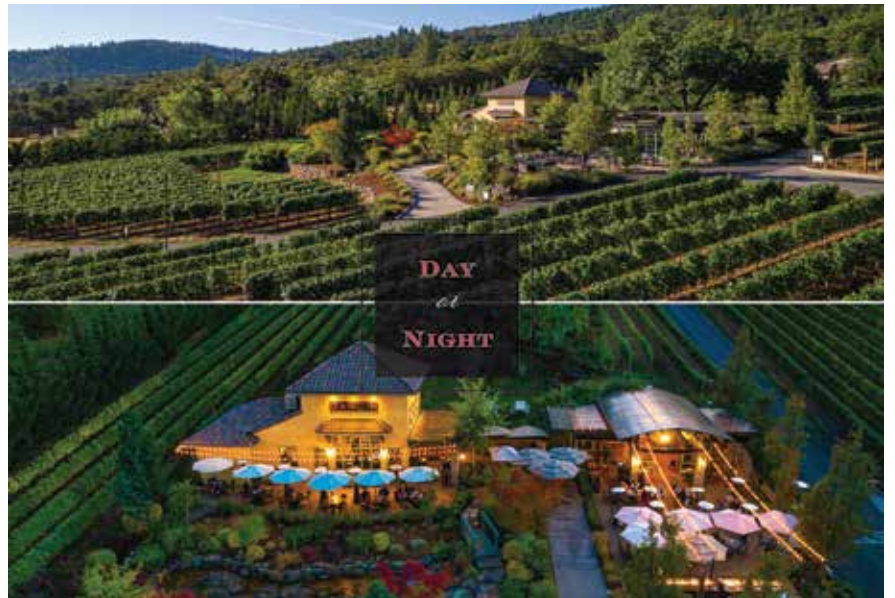

Today the vineyard occupies over half of the property and produces seven wine grape varieties that include Chardonnay, Viognier, Marsanne, Roussanne, Malbec, Syrah and Petit Verdot.

Virtually all the single vintage varieties have won medals at competitions including San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition and Oregon Wine Experience. This season, Russ tells us to look for the release of this very popular 2021 Syrah Rosé along with his smooth and silky 2019 Chardonnay and our popular 2019 Triple Play White Blend!

Daisy Creek Vineyard offers visitors a casual tasting room experience, and staff are delighted to point-out the location of a slurry mine, a reminder of the old-timers who came seeking gold. Most of them never found any. Margaret and Russ certainly did.

DANCIN is the marriage of science and art. The pairing of simple Italian fare and fine wine. And the sincere passion of Dan and Cindy.

Romance and wine have gone hand in hand for centuries and it's only fitting that the genesis of DANCIN has its roots in a love story. It's a blend of passion, serendipity, and miracle meetings, and is best heard while sipping wine in one of the picturesque spaces at the couple's tasting room. Suffice it to say, inclement weather and a chance meeting twice on the same day brought the pair together. They were married after three months and have been DANCIN ever since!

Their award-winning wines are truly world-class and the food is simple, terroir-inspired Italian fare made of the freshest, local ingredients. The venue is set magnificently on the forested foothills overlooking the Rogue Valley, one of the most unique terroirs in the wine-making world.

When visiting, you'll imagine you've been transported to Tuscany or Burgundy, or both, but you're at DANCIN, a culinary and viticulture destination of beauty, taste, style, authentic hospitality and award-winning wine. Welcome to the dance!

Situated just minutes from Ashland, Medford and Jacksonville, it's the perfect setting to drink in the views of the Table Rocks, Mt. McLoughlin and the Rogue Valley while savoring award-winning, estate-grown wines along with artisan wood-fired pizzas and much more... all served tableside!

DOS MARIPOSAS Vineyards and Lavender Farm will open in summer 2022 and is the newest tasting room in the Jacksonville area. The venue marks the realization of a dream for co-owners Mark and Terri, who were looking for a way to simplify life and spend more time with their young daughters, Amelia, and Adeline. After leaving the hustle and bustle of the Twin Cities, MN to start their lives as farmers here, they were joined by grandparents and co-owners, Judy and John, who wanted to be close to their grandchildren. Since then, they’ve planted 2,000 lavender plants and added vineyards, a guest house, and a new barn.

This multi-generational farm is lovingly tended to by everyone, including the littlest helpers. Dos Mariposas, which means two butterflies in Spanish, was named for the girls who bring joy to the farm. Little Finley, who joined the family in 2020, adds a sense of wonder that brings smiles to the faces of anyone he meets. At this family-friendly venue, visitors will find activities for kids both inside and outside.

The first wines were produced from an existing block of cabernet sauvignon and pinot noir. Inspired by a visit to South Africa, varietals pinotage and chenin blanc were planted—unique grapes in this region that produce delicious wines. Dos Mariposas also offers a limited release hard apple/pear cider made from a unique blend of estate-grown fruit. The setting and family-friendly vibe make this the ideal place to relax and enjoy everything Dos Mariposas has to offer. Se habla (un poquito de) español.

FENCES WINERY is a dream come true for two New Yorkers who were fed up with snow, traffic and commitments and feeling “fenced in!” FENCES specializes in Cabernet Sauvignon. And what a Cab it is! From its first full production, it garnered all kinds of accolades and awards including Best of Class and being named “One of the Northwest’s top Cabs.” They’ve continued on that path by producing mouthwatering Cabs that delight even the most discerning palates.

FENCES also produces a delicious Rosé of Cabernet Sauvignon, and last year FENCES released its inaugural vintage of estate-grown Sauvignon Blanc. Right out of the gate, it won Best of Class at the Savor NW Wine Competition and scored a whopping 96-points! This Spring FENCES is releasing a new white varietal—Sémillon—sure to be equally delicious!

The wines are spectacular and personally presented by owners Jody and David Lennon, at their gracious estate-residence encircled by the vineyard. The setting couldn’t be more idyllic, nor could the hospitality. With consummate style, Jody entertains groups of six to one hundred. At this vineyard, the world is your oyster and FENCES is your pearl. Call to arrange your private tasting, dinner, or event. And prepare to be wowed!

HUMMINGBIRD ESTATE's long, graceful drive takes you up a rise through vineyards, and ends in an old-growth forest where the gables of the stately, white English Cottage style venue come into view. It's apparent at first glance that this historic site, surrounded by stone walls, gardens and wide swaths of lawn, cries out for wedding parties and memory-making occasions.

The family-owned estate was previously home to local philanthropists the Carpenter family, and the last territorial governor of Alaska. Today, the mansion serves as a hospitality center where visitors enjoy Hummingbird's wines, celebrate special events, and stay overnight in one of the five sumptuous bed and breakfast suites.

The wines, made by Chris Graves of Naumes Crush and Fermentation, are evidence that Hummingbird's scenic hill offers even more than just a beautiful vista. Favorites include the effervescent White Pinot Noir and the award-winning Malbec and Ruby Rosé, sparkling wine, and 80 Beats beer on-tap.

Throughout the year, Hummingbird hosts music, including a summer Copper Door Concert series, Sip 'n Soup dinners, comedy and movie nights, and other lively events. Guests may also reserve the pickleball court, bring friends and family up to enjoy lawn games, or take time to view the work of inaugural artist-in-residence, Allen Smith. Come find out why Hummingbird Estate is truly a place like no other!

RELLIK WINERY enlivens the Jacksonville wine scene with panache all its own. The modern yet casual tasting room, with its cool, understated vibe, features retractable doors that extend the space onto a grape-arbored patio, but can still seat up to a hundred on chilly days with the doors closed. Rain or shine, there's plenty of space for the party to go on year-round. The wine list offers established favorites such as Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay while tweaking expectations with Three-Eyed Raven, a proprietary red blend destined to become a Rellik classic. Newer varietals have been added as vineyard plantings of Grenache, Viognier, Merlot and Malbec have come into production. The full commercial kitchen allows you to take advantage of tapas-style food pairings, including European-inspired handmade artisan pizzas, and spicy tomato soup made from scratch with gourmet grilled cheese sandwiches. In season, salads and locally-sourced cheese plates feature pears and apples from the estate orchard.

The outdoor area features an all-purpose event space centered around a white and blue gazebo, the archetypal wedding setting, with a breezy, shaded lawn and footpath that invites the celebration to flow around the adjacent pond. The Rellik House, a complex of three suites with pool and fire pit, is available year-round for overnight stays. At Rellik, the celebration doesn't need to end at closing time.

REMOTION is owned by local couple Ben and Lori Grable. In 2012, they fell in love with the Rogue Valley and settled just outside of Jacksonville. After years of being home winemakers, they continued their hobby thanks to their access to premium wine grapes from local growers. With strong encouragement from Lori, Ben completed the Oenology and Viticulture Certificate Program through UC Davis in 2017 and gained experience working under winemaker Bryan Wilson as an intern. In 2018, they turned their hobby into a small business and Remotion was born.

Their focus is on making small lots of premium Rogue Valley-sourced wines that highlight the unique terroir of the area. Working closely with growers, they are firm believers that great wines are grown in the vineyard. Ben and Lori don't attempt to copy what has worked for other wine producing areas, in or outside of the United States, noting that Southern Oregon is unique and a relatively blank palette on which to create their art. While striving to produce single vineyard, single varietal wines, they also don't shy away from nontraditional blends when it allows production of a deliciously unique wine.

After pouring their wines out of the Rellik Winery tasting room for over a year, the Grables opened the Remotion tasting room in downtown Jacksonville. The tasting room and patio are warm, welcoming, family-friendly spaces to enjoy unique small lot wines, small plates and good company.

COWHORN VINEYARD & GARDEN

COWHORN VINEYARD & GARDEN, located in the scenic Applegate Valley is a 117-acre Demeter-certified Biodynamic perennial polyculture property with an onsite winery and tasting room with stunning views.

The vineyard produces grape varietals that are historically associated with the Rhône River wine region of France: Syrah and Grenache for red wine, and Viognier, Marsanne, and Roussanne for white wine. All wines are made with 100% estate-grown fruit from 25 planted acres, receiving more than one hundred 90+ scores over the years.

Cowhorn Vineyard & Garden is proudly one of only a few certified Biodynamic vineyards in the U.S., and even fewer certified wineries. Biodynamic agriculture (some referring to it as organics 2.0), is a sustainable, holistic approach to farming that utilizes organic, locally-sourced materials for fertilizing and maintaining overall soil health. Its practices and farming methods focus on creating healthy soil by restoring and enhancing ecological harmony and avoiding the use of chemical fertilizers. The commitment to biodynamic farming and winemaking contributes to the many dimensions of richness and complexity in the wine.

In addition to the vineyards, Cowhorn Vineyard & Garden has land dedicated to the cultivation of lavender, asparagus, and hazelnut trees. The property has beautiful indoor and outdoor tasting areas in a secluded valley with beautiful natural views. They offer a food pairing menu on weekends.

DEVITT WINERY

DEVITT WINERY was founded in 2003 by Jim Devitt after he and his wife, Sue, relocated from Napa Valley, where they owned Pope Valley Winery. Today, the family tradition continues with grandson, Brendon Butler, after he took over as winemaker in January 2017 following ten years of on-the-job training as Jim's intern, supplemented with enology classes at Umpqua Community College and U.C. Davis.

The winery remains a small, family-owned operation where all winemaking processes are overseen by the Devitt family. The winery focuses on Pinot Noir, Viognier, Syrah, Cab Franc and Merlot. The wines are aged in-barrel to produce a pleasant mouth feel with full-body characteristics which are all drinkable when purchased with no need to lay them down. Visitors to the tasting room will find the winemaker on-hand to answer any questions along with bottles of all vintages ready to take home and enjoy now.

In keeping with family tradition, visitors will be greeted with a smile and treated to outstanding wines and conversation!

QUADY NORTH's tasting room is located on their organically-certified vineyard and winery site, just outside of Ruch in the Applegate Valley. In early 2022, they consolidated their tasting room and winery at the vineyard site that opened in March.

Quady North is the name of Herb Quady's Applegate Valley wine venture, a scion of his parents' Fresno area Quady Winery. QN is known for big, bold Bordeaux and Rhone varietals. After working as Assistant Winemaker at the California Central Coast Bonny Doon Vineyard, Herb came to Oregon to found his own brand, convinced that the truly-compelling wines were being made from grapes grown in cooler areas.

In 2005, the family planted their first 15 acres of Syrah, Cabernet Franc and Viognier on an Applegate Valley hillside. Today, the list of varietals has expanded to include Grenache, Grenache Blanc, Marsanne, Roussanne, Malbec, and Mourvèdre. They have also begun producing wines under the "Layne Vineyard" label, honoring that historic Applegate site, first planted by the Laynes in 1973. This line includes old vine Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay and Merlot.

Quady North wines have been named as one of the world's Top 100 by leading wine publications three times over the last 10 years, including as recently as 2021. The tasting room features views of the vineyard and Applegate Valley, with indoor and outdoor seating. Small bites and gourmet cheese and charcuterie plates are available.

RED LILY VINEYARDS is a boutique, family-owned winery in the beautiful Applegate Valley, specializing in classic Spanish wines, including Tempranillo and Verdejo. Red Lily is named for Bolander’s Lily, a rare species of red lily growing in the nearby Siskiyou Mountains, and for the owners’ daughter, Lily.

The winery and the tasting room are located in an idyllic setting on the banks of the Applegate River with an amazing riverside beach, the site of their popular summer concert series featuring rising local musical artists.

Red Lily features a rustic-chic tasting room, an outdoor patio with gorgeous views of the valley, a historic 80-year-old pole barn, expansive grounds with lush grass areas dotted with picnic tables, and charming indoor nooks where you can relax and enjoy fabulous wines and food offerings, no matter the time of year or weather.

Red Lily offers an array of Spanish-inspired wines, including their flagship Tempranillo—the 2016 just won a double gold at the 2022 McMinnville Wine Competition and a gold at the 2022 Savor Northwest Wine Competition. The signature white wine is the Stargazer Verdejo—a Spanish grape that produces amazingly complex and layered wines—the 2019 won Best of Class at the 2021 Savor Northwest Wine Competition. The 2019 Lily Girl Rosé took a gold medal at the 2021 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition.

VALLEY VIEW WINERY is an iconic name in the Rogue Valley. Not only is it the name of Peter Britt’s original Jacksonville winery, circa 1858, but it also became the name of the first modern winery in the Rogue Valley. Founded by Frank and Ann Wisnovsky, Valley View first made wine in 1976 using fruit from their Applegate Valley estate, planted in 1972.

The winery, celebrating its 50th anniversary this year, is now owned and operated by sons Mark and Michael Wisnovsky and their children. The vineyard has more than doubled in size and now includes Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Pinot Noir, Tempranillo, Viognier, Malbec and Syrah. Wines are being made by acclaimed winemaker Mike Brunson.

To honor their Italian ancestors and celebrate the 50th anniversary, a new San Giovanni wine series features Italian varieties grown in Southern Oregon such as Barbera, Dolcetto, Sangiovese, Moscato Blanco and Primitivo. The new Domaine Rogue series will feature ultra-premium, small lots of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir.

Wines offered at the Applegate Valley Wine Pavilion in Ruch include Rogue Red, Chardonnay, Viognier, Syrah, Tempranillo, Pinot Noir, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, and Malbec. Visitors are encouraged to bring a picnic and enjoy fine wines and some of the best views of the Applegate Valley from the tasting room, patios and expansive lawn areas.

APRICITY VINEYARD is an expression of Noah Lowry and Laloni Cook's love of small-scale, hands-on farming, the kind of viticulture that produces clean, healthy grapes and beautiful wines. Formerly Crow and Bear, the one-time horse farm was converted to viticulture in 2014. Noah and Laloni fell in love with the vineyard and bought it in 2016, naming it APRICITY for the warmth of the sun.
Since that time they have worked on enhancing the health of the vineyard through ecological farming principles including the assistance of resident runner ducks and chickens who freely roam the rows foraging for insects and fertilizing as they go.

Apricity wines are made by Linda Donovan of Pallet Wine Company with minimal intervention, limited sulfites and no chemical additives. Using native yeasts and neutral oak, the winemaking style allows the natural character of the vineyard to show in each Apricity vintage. Opening in February 2019, the tasting room, a repurposed farm structure incorporating rustic elements of salvaged barn wood and mushroom board with a progressively-inspired interactive hempcrete learning wall, is a testament to the diversity and ever-evolving landscape of the Southern Oregon wine region. Laloni and Noah invite you to come and enjoy their boutique vineyard and its uniquely-inspired wines.

DWELL WINES was established in 2019 with a mission to create moments of togetherness over good wine. Rooted in the picturesque Applegate Valley, Dwell is dedicated to crafting exceptional wines, by bottling the joy drawn from God's creation with as little interference as possible.

Linda and Brent Gee purchased their vineyard, Kenyon Vineyard, near Grants Pass in 2019 and moved to Applegate Valley from Dallas, Texas full-time in May 2021 to farm the vineyard and begin selling wine. Today, the company offers eight wines online and in local markets and restaurants. Additional vintages are soon to be released and a tasting room is scheduled to open in Summer 2022. Private tastings are available by appointment.

Surrounded by the stunning Siskiyou Mountains, the 25-acre estate borders the enchanting Applegate River. In addition to prized Pinot Noir and Pinot Gris grapes—apple, cherry, pear, plum, walnut, pine, and other trees, as well as wild blackberries, grow on the property.

Dwell Wines are a celebration and homage to the life and energy of Southern Oregon. Master winemakers—Brian Gruber, Herb Quady and Nichole Schulte—have carefully crafted a balanced and curated selection of wines—a true celebration of the natural bounty that surrounds us.

The gentle winemaking process results in amazing red wines that melt on the palate and show their excellence year after year, winning 32 medals across all varietals, with awards from Best of the Best Northwest Wine Press, San Francisco Chronicle, International Toast of the Coast, Oregon Wine Experience and Oregon WP Cellar Selects. Recent medals and awards include, Platinum 2017 Syrah, 3 OWE Double Golds—for 2015 and 2016 Tempranillo, 2016 Syrah, 4 Golds 2022 SFC, 2017 Cabernet Sauvignon, 2017 Syrah + 2017 Jett Fuel; 2014 through 2022, 15 Silvers, 3 Bronze, 5 Cellar Selects for 2017 Syrah, 2018 Cabernet, 2016 Loco Red and 2018 Sweet Dahlia.

ROSELLA'S VINEYARD & WINERY is situated on the Missouri Flat where some of the oldest vines in the Applegate Valley are found, a region known for big reds, among them award-winning Zin. The small lot production of Rosella's is true to this tradition. Rosella's owner and winemaker Rex Garoutte specializes in robust Cabernet and Zinfandel, as well as big red blends, all produced from locally-sourced fruit. In addition to producing wines under his own label, he handcrafts specialty-blends for local restaurants, including the house reds served at Medford's Vinny's and Porter's.

When you order a glass of Rosella's at a restaurant, it probably came from a keg. Rosella's takes pride in the fact that their kegged wines are the same wines that go into the bottle. If you're planning a wedding or a large party and need wine—come to the tasting room to find the wines you want. Rex can help you with details.

The bright and cozy tasting room invites customers to pull up a stool and join in the conversation with Rex or Sandi. If enjoying a warm afternoon is your goal, Rosella's outside seating with vineyard and Grayback Mountain views makes for a relaxing experience. Rosella's is also home to Spretzels, the spicy pretzel snack available for tasting and purchase.

SCHULTZ GLORY OAKS is the vineyard and tasting room venue of Schultz Wines. Established in 2010 by owners Greg and Debbie Schultz, the couple's business has grown to include eight acres of vineyard and an 800 case annual production. Their naturally-fermented, award-winning wines from Bordeaux, Burgundy, Rhone and Spanish varietals are produced in small, minimally-handled lots by Linda Donovan and her talented team at Pallet Wine Company.

The Schultzes believe that land stewardship, animal and plant diversity, and soil health produce the best grapes and therefore the best wine. Their goal is to develop a living farm system, minimally dependent on off-site inputs, that is highly self-sufficient. They farm without the use of harmful chemicals, rather, they share the bounty and the workload with chickens, sheep and goats, their mowing and fertilizing crews. The natural fertilizer builds moisture-retaining soil structure in the vineyard and better pastures which then recycles into hay for the livestock. In their minds, these practices produce the best and cleanest wine that is truly reflective of the place.

In 2015, they converted the 1949 ranch house on their property into a solar-powered tasting room, delivering net-zero power. Bring a picnic lunch and savor fantastic wine while enjoying the stunning views of the surrounding hills and valleys. The Schultzes want to get to know you, to share more of their story with you, and to hear your stories.

WOOLDRIDGE CREEK WINERY & CRUSHPAD CREAMERY is proud to be Oregon's first combined vineyard, winery, and creamery. The vineyard is nestled into the hillsides near the Applegate River, which is within the Applegate Valley sub-AVA of the Rogue River winegrowing region. Ted and Mary Warrick first planted the vineyard in 1978 and named it after the Wooldridge family who first settled the area in the 1800s.

For two and a half decades, Wooldridge Creek Vineyard's grapes were sold to renowned wineries throughout Oregon. In 2005, it was decided to begin making their own wine from their grapes, and the winery and tasting room were built on the property. The vineyard has been expanded over the Warrick's 40 plus years farming the land, from the initial 18 acres to the current 52 acres and 12 different grape varieties. Eager to add to the tasting room guests' experience, the Crushpad Creamery was established in 2015 to produce craft cheeses on site from locally-sourced organic milk.

The sustainably-designed winery offers unparalleled mountain and valley views in a relaxed and unassuming atmosphere—the perfect spot to gather with friends and enjoy a variety of world-class wines, hand-crafted cheeses and locally-sourced charcuterie. Enjoy a tasting flight, a glass, or a bottle of wonderful wine along with a cheese plate or a chef's board that features all the fantastic food offerings.

PLAISANCE RANCH traces its roots to a pioneering French vintner, Joseph Ginét, who established a vineyard on Sterling Creek outside Jacksonville in the 1890's called "Plaisance Orchards." Along with selling grapes and grape plant starts, he produced various orchard fruits.

In 1998, a third-generation, Joe Ginét, grandson of Joseph, with help from cousins from Savoie, France established the modern-day vineyard in the Williams Valley, planting 18 varieties and six rootstocks on 17 acres of the 210 acre ranch.

A winery with such a heritage could hardly be ordinary, evidenced by a slew of accolades including three consecutive years of 90+ ratings from Wine Spectator and Wine Enthusiast, #5 on the Seattle Times "Top 50 Wines of the Pacific Northwest, Gold, Double Gold and Best of Show at Oregon Wine Experience and most recently awards from TEXSOM and James Suckling.

Winemaker Joe Ginét and his wife Suzi welcome visitors to their tasting room to taste wines produced according to family tradition. They also produce certified organic grass-fed beef, so don't be surprised if you leave with a few pounds of premium beef in addition to a few bottles of exquisite wine.

The ranch offers a unique Southern Oregon experience. After all, Plaisance means "with great pleasure!"

Tasting Terms:

While you’re out enjoying your favorite vineyards’ offerings, these terms will come in handy!

Brix: A measurement of the sugar content of grapes, indicating the degree of the grapes’ ripeness at harvest. Most wine grapes are harvested at between 21 and 25 Brix. For an alcohol conversion level, multiply the stated Brix by .55.

Chaptalization: The addition of sugar to juice before and/or during fermentation, to boost sugar levels in under-ripe grapes and alcohol levels in the subsequent wines.

Canopy: The parts of the grapevine above ground including shoots and leaves.

Clone: A group of vines originating from a single, individual plant propagated asexually from a single source. Clones are selected for the unique qualities of the grapes and wines they yield, such as flavor, productivity and adaptability to growing conditions.

Crush: The time during harvest season when the grapes are picked and crushed.

Early Harvest: Denotes a wine made from early-harvested grapes, usually lower than average in alcohol content or sweetness.

Fermentation: The process by which yeast converts sugar into alcohol and carbon dioxide and turns grape juice into wine.

Field Blend: When a vineyard is planted to several varieties harvested together to produce a single wine.

Filtering: The process of removing particles from wine after fermentation. Most wines, unless otherwise labeled, are filtered for both clarity and stability.

Green Harvest: The trimming of unripe grapes to decrease crop yields, thereby improving the concentration of the remaining bunches.

Late Harvest: On labels, indicates that a wine was made from grapes picked later than normal and at a higher sugar (Brix) level than normal.

Lees: Sediment remaining in a barrel or tank during and after fermentation.

Maceration: During fermentation, the steeping of the grape skins and solids in the wine, where alcohol acts as a solvent to extract color, tannin and aroma from the skins.

MOG: Material other than grape.

Must: The unfermented juice of grapes extracted by crushing or pressing.

Passerillage: French term for leaving grapes on the vine past normal harvest so they dry-up and concentrate their flavors.

Pip: Grape seeds.

Press Wine: The juice extracted under pressure after pressing for white wines and after fermentation for reds. Press wine has more flavor and aroma, deeper color and often more tannins than free-run juice.

Racking: The practice of moving wine by hose from one container to another, leaving sediment behind for purposes of aeration or clarification.

Ripeness: The point when a grape has achieved a sufficient balance of sugars and acids.

Scion: A producer vine and the part of a vine that is grafted onto rootstock and from which wine grapes will be harvested.

Tannin: The mouth-puckering substance found mostly in red wines derived primarily from grape skins, seeds and stems, but also from oak barrels. Tannin acts as a natural preservative that helps wine age and develop.

Veraison: The stage in the annual growth cycle of a grapevine where the grapes ripen and change color.

Vine Density: The number of vines per acre.

Vintage Date: Indicates the year that a wine was made. In order to carry a vintage date in the United States, a wine must come from grapes that are at least 95 percent from the stated calendar year.

Viticultural Area: A legally-defined grape-growing area distinguished by geographical features, climate, soil, elevation, history and other definable boundaries.

Vintner-Grown: Wine from a winery-owned vineyard situated outside the winery’s delimited viticultural area.

Yeast: Micro-organisms that produce the enzymes which convert sugar to alcohol and are necessary for the fermentation of grape juice into wine.

Yield: The quantity of fruit a parcel of land renders after a harvest.
